

Nominate a candidate in your school for LDA's Outstanding Teacher of the Year!

Save the Date

24th Annual Conference

"Collaborate to Educate"
Strategies for Life...Plan Early!

presented by

LDAMV

Thursday

December 4, 2008

8 am - 3 pm

Radisson Hotel ~ Utica Centre

200 Genesee Street ~ Utica

Purpose

Our purpose is to recognize and honor an outstanding teacher who has demonstrated creativity in linking the educational system, community supports and the judicial system to ensure the success of students.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the teacher of the year award, the nominee must meet the following requirements:

- Be a full time New York State teacher in grades K-12 ~ regular or special education
- Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of navigating systems to ensure student success through early intervention and planning
- Understand the individual needs of students to develop the skills to overcome barriers in their education and other areas of life
- Use a variety of teaching strategies to provide equal education for all students
- Teach with passion to provide students with ambition for future success
- Communicate regularly with students to encourage them to plan for their future

Nominations can be submitted by parents, students, school personnel or community members by June 23, 2008.

Nomination Procedure

Nominate a colleague for the Outstanding Teacher Award by acknowledging exceptional practices using the attached form.

Please complete the nomination forms and return by June 23, 2008.

Return Nomination Forms to:

The Learning Disability Association of the Mohawk Valley, Inc.
401 Columbia Street
Utica, New York, 13502
Deadline: June 23, 2008

